TERRIBLE SCENE ON SHIPBOARD.

The danger of shipping combustibles on board passenger ships was strikingly illustrated in English waters a fortnight ago.—A passenger named Henry Parsons tells the story in a letter to the London Herald. He says he started from London for Cornwall on an excursion, accompanied by his wife and two children. Preferring to go by sea, he took passage on the steamer Lady Wodehouse; Land, when under way, that the cargo consisted of paraffine, petroleum, pure spirits of camphor, linseed oil, lucifer matches and gunpowder. Going to sea in a volcano was not pleasant. Nevertheless he went to bed, only to be aroused by a cry of fire. Then came scenes which are vividly described:

I tumbled out of the berth and sung out to know what was the matter, when the stewardess replied, "Oh, sir, the paraffine has caught fire!" and then the appalling fact flashed across my mind that the barrels I had noticed, which were within six feet of me, were charged with this dreadful combustible. I got my boys and their clothes out, and their mother, having come over to us, took them back with her into the ladies' cabin, and I set to work to get our luggage out, as I expected the fire to enter every moment. While this engaged I heard the fire roaring like a furnace, and the thick plate glass became red hot, glowing with the intensity of the fire.—Nothing could have saved us had it not been, under Providence, for the coolness, courage, and skill of Captain Higginson, and the undaunted gallantry of his crew, aided by some of the passengers, among whom I noticed men of the artillery, marines, and 80th regiment, besides sailor passengers.

It appears that during the plunging and rolling of the ship a cask of paraffine broke adrift, and pitching on deck started its hoops and began to leak; this was followed by another, which more ambitious, took a "header" into a case of matches. The matches, resenting the assault, immediately broke into flame and ignited the paraffine, which caused the barrel to burst, and in an instant the deck was a sheet of fire. The captain with great promptness and skill, availed himself of the raging storm to ship a heavy sea, which checked the blaze and washed much of the paraffine overboard, and enabled the hands to rig the hose and handle the buckets, which they did with a will; they stood in the blazing gang way, and heaved the casks of paraffine overboard all in flames, while others dashed buckets of water over the burning woodwork of the saloon, the bulwarks, and a boat hanging on the davits overhead. After about an hour of desperate work and intense horror the fire was extinguished, and we had the pleasure of assuring the womankind that all danger from fire was over.

I do not know how others felt, but for my own part I have never experienced anything like it. I have been in many dangers both by sea and land, have doubled the Cape and weathered the Horn in the wildest weather, but never did a fearful death so stare me in the face, and when I thought that my wife and two bright boys were doomed to perish before my eyes in the same manner, and I thought of three little innocents at home thus bereft of father and mother, my feelings can be better imagined than described. Immediately after all danger was over I was seized with violent sickness, not sea sickness, but something quite different. About an hour and a half after another case of lucifers burst into flame, and I saw a man trying to force it through the entry-port or gangway; it was too large, and burst in his arms, hundreds of blazing boxes being whirled by the gale around us as we stood on the saloon deck. The effect was terrific.

All through this dreadful time the ship tore at full speed into the dark night, and faced the tremendous seas, and being steered from amidships on the saloon deck, the man at the wheel stood at his post unmoved, although at times the sheet of flame made an arch of fire over his head and seemed to threaten to blind him.

[From the St. Louis Times, Sept. 21]

SINGULAR DIVORCE—A HUSBAND PAYS HIS WIFE $2,000 TO DESERT HIM.

It will be recollected by the readers of the Times that a week ago Philip Hessdorfer was arrested on the complaint of his wife who charged him with committing perjury in his testimony before the Circuit Court, for the purpose of procuring a divorce. It appears that about a year ago Hessdorfer and his wife, finding that in their domestic affairs they could only agree in disagreeing, decided to separate on the following terms:

She was to receive a cash payment of $1,000 and leave the city, and one year after the date of her withdrawal was to be paid an additional $1,000, and in the meantime he was to secure a divorce on the ground of desertion. She left the city and took up her abode in Cincinnati. Hessdorfer applied for and established a divorce without any resistance. A week ago, the year having expired, she returned to the city for the purpose of collecting her little deposit, and instead of calling upon her former husband she visited some friends, who persuaded her to institute suit.

She consented, supposing a civil action had been commenced for the recovery of the money and when she learned that an arrest had been made she refused to prosecute. She says that her husband was not guilty of any criminal influence whatever, and that the divorce was obtained with her knowledge and consent. When she called upon him he consented to her receiving the $1,000, and it was accordingly paid over, when she refused to follow up the suit, and the case was accordingly dismissed yesterday for want of prosecution.—In possession of the money, Mrs. Henrietta Hessdorfer left the city, and promised to give her former husband no further trouble.

This case is very much unlike many others in the courts, and particularly unlike those where two men have sued for damages on account of losing their wives. Hessdorfer, on the contrary, actually paid a large sum to assist his spouse to "desert" him, which, according to the laws of this State, furnishes a valid ground for divorce.

The students of the University of Michigan have determined to have female lecturers this season, and have invited Anna Dickinson, Mrs. Stanton, Miss Field, and G. F. Train.

THE SENTINEL.

JOSIAH TURNER, Jr., EDITOR.

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 15, 1869.

WHO AND WHAT ARE RUINING THE STATE CREDIT?

It was natural, at the close of the late war, that the State credit should be somewhat impaired. The capitalists of the country could not tell how disastrous the war had been in the destruction of the resources of our people; they could not tell how well disposed the people were to restore public credit, and, besides, they could not tell how the State would be reconstructed, and what sort of State Governments would be erected. It was, we repeat, natural and prudent to wait and see the results of the war and reconstruction, and, in the meantime, the credit of the State was nominal. After reconstruction the credit of the State ought to have become good and approximated its old standard. This was the natural course of things. But, unfortunately, reconstruction has brought about a system of State Government that affords no reasonable protection to life, property or labor, and, worse than this, if possible, this State Government is in the hands of a class of men utterly irresponsible, who have next to no property, who are ignorant, corrupt and vicious, and whose whole course of official action show conclusively their deliberate purpose to injure the State, degrade the people, and to rob and plunder them in every practicable way. These statements are sustained by facts notorious throughout the State, and, indeed, throughout the country.

The Radical State Government, and the Radical men who administer it, are a by word and a laughing stock at home and throughout the Union. The mention of the name of the present State Government and its chief, is the occasion for a sneer, ridicule and contemptuous laughter. Every body knows this is so; the Radicals know it; the Governor knows it; the "carpet-bag gers" know it; the Judges know it—every body knows it. Every body at home and abroad knows that the State Government is used to promote the purposes and ends, and to enrich a huge "Ring," composed of degenerate North Carolinians and "carpet baggers." Every body knows this.

Is it any wonder then that the credit of the State is simply nothing? It is nominal; no one buys the new bonds except at the adventurer's prices. Stock gamblers buy them and sell, them by combinations and "Rings;" no regular straight forward dealers buy them; nobody invests in them; they are bought to be sold, they are handled about; they are regarded as spurious, doubtful, insecure. Fair dealers never buy them. They know how the new debt was created; they know who created it; they know who administer the State Government; they know the people of North Carolina did not create this debt, and that the "Ring" did; they know the "Ring" manipulates these new bonds, not for the benefit of the State, but for their own benefit; they know the people don't sanction this villainy and outrage, and hence, the nominal credit of the State.

Just the other day, the New York Herald said that North Carolina bonds were worse off than any other bonds, and the reason was, that they were under the curse of a parcel of speculating manipulators, alias the "Ring." This was just after the Governor and the Treasurer had left New York. That is what injures the State credit.

The "Ring" men and "carpet baggers" whine and curse us, and tell the people that we injure the credit of the State. The charge is shamelessly false. Do we tell anything but the truth to the people? We give the figures as they are; they can't lie. And will not the truth bear telling? Is there, in fact, something that ought not to be told? Does the State Government afford any reasonable protection to life, property or labor? Are not corrupt and incompetent men pretending to administer the Government? Have they not disgraced the State? Have they not attempted to create a debt of more than twenty six millions of dollars? Have they not burdened the people with taxes more than they are able to bear? in short, is there any confidence, at home or abroad, in this rotten, corrupt mockery of a State Government? Have the people of any party any confidence in it? The State Government is managed by a "Ring," composed of men who care nothing for any party, who use it to enrich themselves, regardless of whatever evil may come to the State. Every body knows this is so; even the Radicals themselves complain of it. We know that this corrupt Radical Governor that we have, hears these complaints from the Radicals, daily; they tell him he is ruining the State, and that the measures he and his "Ring" are pursuing will ruin the Radical party. We say, we know the Governor hears these things constantly. Yes, the rank and file of the Radical party are rousing up; they see and feel the curse that is upon them; brought upon them by Governor Holden and his "Ring" and "carpet-baggers."

If telling the truth about the leprous blotts upon the body politic, the "Rings," and rascals of all grades and sizes, has an effect upon the spurious bonds in the market, we can't help it; we intend to continue the work until the State is relieved of the swarm of hungry vultures that are disgracing her people and eating out their substance. We shall hold up these recreant sons and their carpet-bag allies, to the contempt and scorn of an incensed and injured people, not only until they are a stench in the nostrils of the people of all parties, but until they shall be ashamed to show themselves in public, but hide away in dens and caverns, from the sight and companionship of all honest men. These "Ring" men; these plunderers and robbers of the people, who spend the people's money and ruin the State's credit, have the effrontery to turn and say that we injure the credit of the State!" O, ye generation of vipers, how can you escape the damnation that your crimes deserve!

From the Wilmington Journal.

OUR BONDS AND CREDIT.

We take the liberty of publishing the following letter from one of the leading brokers of New York in regard to North Carolina bonds. What a sad picture is here presented of the deplorable financial condition of our State. Here we see how our credit is ruined and the reputation of the State destroyed. Just think of the bonds of North Carolina, which once occupied the proudest position upon the Stockboard, hawked about the streets of New York by curb-stone brokers and gamblers "like stale fish from the market."

Alarmed at the extravagant and corrupt appropriations of money—alarmed because we believed that the capability of our people would be overtaxed, we protested against the appointment and election of men to handle these bonds whose capacity was untried and whose honesty was doubted. We knew that it would require experience, capacity and integrity to save the credit of the State. We knew that it was of the utmost moment that the representatives of North Carolina on Wall Street should be gentlemen of large experience and influence, and of spotless character to retain confidence in our Securities. We have endeavored in vain to secure such representatives. Our efforts have called down upon us the condemnation of friends. We have been blamed because we could not see the "policy" of "making the best of it." Editorials and correspondents of Conservative papers here and elsewhere have directly and indirectly attacked us for injuring the credit of the State by outspoken objections to certain officials. We believed then, as we know now, that "honesty was the policy." Look at the picture presented below of the condition of our "special tax" bonds. See how they are disposed of. Read what means are used to "raise the wind." Judge into what hands the credit and reputation of North Carolina have fallen:

NEW YORK, Oct. 7th, 1869.

Messrs. Editors:—I am in receipt, almost daily, of your valuable journal and read it with much pleasure, particularly your articles relating to agriculture, in which I take a great interest. I have also noticed many able articles written by yourselves and others respecting the present deplorable financial condition of your good old State. There must be something radically wrong. There must be bad management at home or the present state of things could not exist! It is but a short time ago that the credit of your State stood in the very front rank. Your bonds were sought for by capitalists both North and South, and the very name of North Carolina was synonymous with wealth and high standing credit. I do not exaggerate. No State in the Union occupied a more enviable financial position than did the "Old North State." Look at the contrast between those days and the present! You have the same industrious, frugal people to till your lands and bring to the coffers of the State their yearly contribution. But alas, I fear you have a different class of men at the helm of State. There are agents of your State now in the market with bonds for sale on almost every corner of the streets. One is afraid to look at a tall man in the face, from a fear of being asked to purchase "North Carolina Special Tax Bonds!" You are begged to loan money upon them at the rate of thirty cents to the dollar, and I have this moment an application to borrow twenty five thousand dollars, leaving as collateral security one hundred thousand dollars of the bonds! Again I repeat there must be something wrong at home, or the bonds of your State would not be thus hawked about the streets as stale fish from the market.

Your idea about purchasing the bonds at a low price and selling at a high one, is a very simple affair. I can tell you something better than that. Suppose $25,000 was borrowed on sixty days credit, and $100,000 of the bonds were left as collateral security for the payment of the note at maturity, and then suppose the note is not paid at maturity, who gets the bonds? Now the terms of this loan are in the body of the note and read thus—"with authority to sell the same at the Brokers Board, or at public or private sale at his (the lender's) option on the non performance of this promise and without notice." Well, suppose the note is not met at maturity—the bonds must be sold to somebody, and if an outside friend happens to be the purchaser at say enough money to pay the note and interest—what matter? You see how much better it is to purchase at 25 per cent. than to pay 40 or 50 per cent.

I trust you will continue to keep this matter before the people of the State and in such a manner as will awaken a little attention, with the hope that a change will take place in the management of affairs at headquaters.

I am, with much respect,
Your ob't serv't, ——

IT CAN'T BE SO.—No, it cannot be! The statement that Judge Tourgee was seen travelling in the country last Sunday—for if the Judge is too religious to travel to Court on Sunday he is too pious a man to be seen spurging around and cavorting over the country on the Sabbath day. It must be a mistake.

Now that Pilgrim Ashley was seen flanking our town to board a River boat for Barksdale's depot, on Sunday, we think very likely. The Pilgrim was observed 'stealing around,' on the outskirts of the town, as if he wished to elude the sight of man, and would, unquestionably, have been taken for a fugitive from justice, if he had not been in good company. We regret that we missed seeing the Pilgrim, and his huge Massachusetts carpet bag.—Milton Chronicle.

A young lady of Cincinnati named Asher, only seventeen years of age, and very handsome and prepossessing, is preparing to enter the rostrum to battle against the doctrine of woman suffrage. The Ladies who run the Ohio Woman Suffrage machine are to put against her a Miss Belle Soule, and there is a bright prospect of a very animated controversy between the two petticoated champions.

The days of superstition are not yet over. Mrs. Millie Hays, a white woman of Nashville, has sued out a warrant against a negro woman named Eliza Childress to prevent her conjuring her.

CONFEDERATE LOSSES DURING THE CIVIL WAR, 1861 '65.

Dr. Jones, Secretary of the Southern Historical Society, has prepared the following estimate of the Confederate losses during the late war, which Adjutant Gen. Cooper pronounces to be nearly accurate:

Killed, Wounded and Prisoners of the Confederate Army, during the War, 1861-'65.

Year.	Killed.	Wounded.	Prisoners.
1861	1,315	4,054	2,727
1862	18,582	68,659	48,390
1863	11,870	51,313	71,211
1864-'5	23,000	70,000	80,000
Total	53 773	194 026	202,283

If the deaths from disease be added, the sum total will represent the entire loss.

The returns of the field and general hospitals are known for 1861 and 1862.

Confederat's killed in battle, 1861-'2,	19 897
Deaths caused by wounds in field hospitals,	1,023
Death caused by wounds in general hospitals,	2,618
Deaths caused by disease in field hospitals,	14 597
Deaths caused by disease in general hospitals,	16 741
Total deaths in the C. S. A., 1861-'2,	55,476
Total wounded in C. S. A., 1861-'2,	72 713
" prisoners " "	54,072
" discharged " "	16,940
Total wounded, prisoners and discharged in 1861 '2,	140 725

If it be fair to assume that the total mortality of '63 64 was fully equal to that of 1862, then the total deaths in the Confederate army, 1861-65, was at least 160,000, exclusive of the deaths in Northern prisons, which would swell the number to near 185,000; and if the deaths amongst the discharged for wounds and diseases, and amongst the sick and wounded on furlough, be added, the grand total of deaths in the Confederate army during the entire war did not fall far short of 200,000.

According to this calculation the deaths from disease were about three times as numerous as those resulting from the casualties of battle.

The available Confederate force capable of active service in the field did not, during the entire war, exceed six hundred thousand (600,000) men. Of this number not more than (400,000) were enrolled at any one time; and the Confederate States never had in the field more than two hundred thousand (200,000) men capable of bearing arms, at any one time, exclusive of sick, wounded and disabled.

If the preceding calculation be correct, we have the following figures, illustrating the loss s of the Confederate armies during the war:

Confederate forces actively engaged, 1861 5,	600,000
Total deaths in C. S. A.	200,000
Losses of C. S. A., in prisoners, '61 5, which may be considered as total losses, on account of the policy of non-exchange by the United States,	200,000
Losses of C. S. A. by discharges, disability and desertion,	100,000

If this calculation, which is given only as an approximation, be correct, one third of all the men actively engaged on the Confederate side were either killed outright upon the field or died of disease and wounds; another third of the entire number were captured and held for an indefinite period in Northern prisons; and of the remaining 400 000, at least one-half were lost to the service by discharges and desertion.

At the close of the war the available force of the Confederate States numbered scarcely 100,000 effective men.

Fayetteville (N. C.) Eagle, Oct. 7th, 1869.

KERSHAW'S PATENT COTTON WILLOW.

It may not be known to our readers that one of the old citizens of Fayetteville, Mr. John Kershaw, who was for nearly twenty years connected with Blount's Creek Factory in this town, has recently patented an invention that promises to be of great advantage to Cotton Manufacturers. We refer to Kershaw's Patent Cotton Willow, which is a machine intended for opening and preparing Cotton, as it is brought to the factories in its original baled state, for carding and weaving. The capacity of this willow is one bale of cotton every forty-five minutes. It will open the Cotton thoroughly and with perfect ease, and requires less power than any willow now in use; and for the quality and quantity of the work it will perform, it has no equal; and it does its work without injuring the staple of the Cotton.

H. G. Hall Esq., Superintendent of the Beaver Creek Factory near this place—an experienced machinist and manufacturer, and himself an Inventor, speaks in very high terms of Mr. Kershaw's improvement. One of these willows is in operation at Beaver Creek Factory, where Mr. Kershaw is prepared to make them and his Wool carding machines. We are glad that our townsman has the honor of being the originator of such a benefit to the Cotton Manufacturing Interest; and, knowing his merit and ability, we take pleasure in commending him and his invention to the public.

OSCILLATION OF RAILWAY TRAINS.—Sir Charles Fox states in a letter to a contemporary, his opinion that the oscillation of railway trains, more especially at high velocities, producing what is ordinarily called "gauge concussions," is caused in very great measure by the use of wheels, the tires of which are portions of cones instead of cylinders. It is well known to engineers that the tires of railway wheels are generally coned to an inclinat on of 1 in 20. It is considered that these were first introduced by Mr. George Stephenson in the expectation of facilitating the passage of vehicles round curves by their adapting themselves through their various diameters to the different lengths of the two rails on which they were running. This, however, is not the case in practice. No advantage is found to arise in the use of conical wheels in passing round curves, and as much evil results therefrom as on straight lines, Sir Charles has constructed upwards of 250 miles of railway abroad, in the rolling stock of which he has departed from the usual form of wheel, and has used only cylindrical ones, and he has been gratified with the satisfactory reports of the steadiness of trains supplied with them.—London Star.

To live comfortably in San Francisco requires the "needful." One of the Cincinnati excursionists says that some of the party paid thirty-six dollars, gold, for a fine turn-out with four horses, for an afternoon ride. Ten dollars are demanded for a common hack for similar service, and one dollar and fifty cents to two dollars each to transport the bleeding traveller to the train or boat which is to convey him away, his sole relief from his exhaustive pressure. The hotels advertise their charge at three dollars per day, but manage to get five or six in the bill, by including the room which they call parlor, through which you are obliged to pass in order to reach your sleeping closet. To enjoy the luxury of a shave, or a clean pair of boots, you are required to disburse twenty-five to fifty cents for each operation, and the washing of a kerchief or shirt involves an amount equal to the cost thereof at home.

GLASS SPECTACLES,

Superior to any other in use—constructed in accordance with the science and philosophy of nature, in the peculiar form of

A CONCAVE CONVEX ELLIPSIS,

Admirably adapted to the organs of sight, and perfectly natural to the eye, affording altogether the best artificial help to the human vision ever invented. Used only by

MORRIS BERNHARDT,

SPECTACLE & OPTICAL MANUFACTURER.

THE ADVANTAGES of these Spectacles over all others are:

1. They can be worn with perfect ease for any length of time at one sitting, giving astonishing clearness of vision, by candle or any other artificial light, comfort to the spectacle-wearer hitherto unknown.

2. How to select Glasses. It requires professional guidance even when a good article is offered. Dr. Bernhardt not only has the best Glasses that can be found in the market, but carefully examines the eyes of his patients, and gives indispensable advice as to the proper selection of them.

3. When the eyes ache or pain through the action of a bright light, such as is reflected from the snow, sunny weather, white paper, and in reading, writing or sewing, or vivid colored bodies; these lenses, by softening the rays effect a most agreeable sensation and give great relief.

4. These spectacles are scientifically adjusted to every case of defective sight with unerring accuracy, whether arising from age, strain, over work, or premature decay, by Dr Bernhardt on a new and exact principle, entirely his own, which has seldom failed to be correct.

5. After several years of public practice, adjusting spectacles to patients under every aspect of defective vision, as well as experience in an extensive, long established business in his Optical Stores, both here and in Europe, Dr. Bernhardt considers it a sufficient guarantee of his ability to supply such glasses as are best calculated for the assistance of imperfect sight.

6. M. Bernhardt, to signalize himself from the host of pretenders in his profession, with pride submits for inspection, copies of testimonials he has received from medical gentlemen of the most unquestionable respectability and talent in America; also a number of certificates from well known gentlemen of distinction who have used his spectacles—the originals of all which he will be happy to show to those who may request it. The use of any of the following names or certificates hereunto affixed, without an actual possession of the same, would be a forgery, a capital offence, punishable by State imprisonment.

Testimony of Recommendations from Medical Gentlemen, Professors of the highest Opthalmic talent in Raleigh, N. C., and in the Union

Raleigh, Aug 24, 1869.

I have carefully examined Prof. Bernhardt's Spectacles, and take great pleasure in recommending him to those who, having defective vision, can be made to see more clearly and distinctly by the use of glasses. He has wonderful skill in this respect. The pair he has supplied me with are of Brazilian Pebble, of most superior quality and excellent finish. They enable me to see how to read, or write, at the ordinary focal distance, as clearly and distinctly as I did twenty years ago. I very cheerfully bear testimony both to the Professor's skill and to the wonderful properties of his glasses.

CHAS. E. JOHNSON, M. D.

Raleigh, N. C., Aug. 24, 1869.

I take great pleasure in saying that the Glasses I have obtained (and am now using) from Dr. M. Bernhart are to me a source of greater comfort than any I have previously used; my own experience fully sustaining the testimonials of excellence and commendation which he has received from gentlemen of science, and high character, in various parts of our country.

WM. G. HILL, M. D.

Raleigh, N. C., Aug 24, 1869.

I take pleasure in stating that I have examined the glasses of M. Bernhardt, Oculist and Optician, and think they are of the best material, and constructed on scientific principles. I would advise those in need of glasses to call on him.

Very respectfully
F. J HAYWOOD, M. D.

Raleigh, Aug. 24, 1869.

Doctor Bernhardt called at my house and exhibited to me his fine assortment of Australian Crystal Glasses, which are of a very superior quality and workmanship. I take pleasure in saying that the glasses I have obtained from Professor Bernhardt are to me a source of greater comfort than any I have previously worn and cheerfully commend them to those who may be in need of glasses.

W. H McKEE, M. D.

Raleigh, Aug 25, 1869.

After an attentive examination of the various glasses in the possession of Dr. M. Bernhardt, accompanied with his explanation of his mode of preparing and adjusting them, it is with great pleasure I state my belief of his great skill, and of the benefit which those needing glasses must derive from his assistance.

R. S. MASON, D. D.,
Pastor Prot. Episcopal Church.

Raleigh, Aug 25, 1869.

Dr. M. Bernhardt, Oculist and Optician, has fitted me with a pair of Spectacles superior to any article of the kind I ever had before. The material is Australian Crystal, the quality of which renders vision very clear and distinct, and enables me to read and write with as much ease as I did ten or twelve years ago. His assortment of glasses is most complete and the finish apparently perfect. I take great pleasure in recommending him to all who need their sight improved. DRURY LACY, D. D.,
Late Pres't. of Davidson College, N. C.

Raleigh, Aug. 26, 1869.

It gives me pleasure to bear witness to the extraordinary value and excellence of the glasses prepared and furnished by Prof. Bernhardt. To those who need artificial aid for their vision he will be of the highest service.

I have examined a large number of the glasses of Prof. M. Bernhardt, and with pleasure certify to their superior excellences. I wear a pair of them and see as perfectly as I could in my youth. They are the best I ever used, and I therefore heartily recommend him to the patronage of the public. JONATHAN WORTH,

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT,
Columbia, June 19th, 1866.

Sir: I have made a full and satisfactory test of the Spectacles procured from you, and I have the pleasure to say that the glasses are better adapted to my eyes than any I have ever used. The facility with which you fitted the glasses to my eyes, furnished me conclusive evidence of your scientific skill in optics and your thorough experience as an Oculist.

Your attainments in your profession entitle you to the confidence, patronage and gratitude of the public. I have the honor to be,
Very respectfully yours,

Governor of South Carolina.

Wilmington, March 31, 1866.

I have examined a number of Professor Bernhardt's Glasses and am now using a pair of them, and take pleasure in testifying that they enable me to see better than any others that I have used, while in his collection there seem to be some adapted to remedy any kind of defect in vision. THOMAS ATKINSON,
Bishop of North Carolina.

Nashville, April 27, 1867.

The difference between Dr Bernhardt and most Opticians is, according to my observation, that while they pretend to more than they know, he knows more of his business than he professes.

Public Laws of N. C. passed by the Legislature of 1868 69. J. A. Jones, Bookseller.

Tucker Hall, Monday and Tuesday evenings, Tremaine Brothers, and Mr. Jno. G. Pierson.

TREMAINE BROTHERS.—At Tucker Hall, on Monday and Tuesday evenings, the citizens of this place will be treated to a musical banquet, such as they rarely ever have the opportunity of enjoying. The Messrs. Tremaine, are young gentlemen, of rare talent and their entertainment, will be patronized and appreciated by all true lovers of music.

PROFESSOR S. M. HEWLETT.—This popular and distinguished Lecturer, whose powers as an orator have given him a national reputation, will deliver a series of Lectures in this City, next week, under the auspices of the Young Men's Christian Association. The Lectures will take place in Tucker Hall, on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday evenings, the 20th 21th and 22nd inst., and the proceeds, after defraying expenses, are to be appropriated to the relief of the poor. Our citizens, and strangers visiting Raleigh, will thus have provided for them a rare intellectual treat. Prof. Hewlett is said to surpass Gough as a humorist and delineator and his efforts are everywhere spoken of with high commendation.

DISTINGUISHED ARRIVAL.—H. D. Labouchere, a member of the English Parliament is in the city, stopping at the Yarborough House.

Dr. Morris Bernhardt, the celebrated Optician, has returned to the city and can be found at his old quarters, at the Yarborough House.

HENDERSON FAIR.—Owing to the pressure upon our columns, we are compelled to postpone until the next issue, our report of the Fair.

We understand that it was a grand success, and large numbers of visitors were in attendance. We hear on every side, the address delivered by Gen. Mat. Ransom, spoken of in the highest terms.

Henry Smith will have on hand every evening, a supply of fresh oysters. Orders left at the Telegraph Office, will be attended to.

STATE FAIR—ADDRESS BY PROF. KERR. We predict an unusually valuable address from our State Geologist Prof. Kerr, at the approaching State Fair. He has paid special attention to the making of Manures from raw material accessible to our people such as Marls, Fish &c., and he is known to be deeply interested in the encouragement of agriculture.

He is a man of fine scientific attainments, and a good Speaker, and all who come will learn what they ought to know, if they wish to improve the resources of our good old State.

The following gentlemen have been appointed Marshals at the coming State Fair:

W. G. Lewis, Edgecombe, Chief Marshal.

W. P. Hill, Mecklenburg; Samuel Grier, Cabarrus; B. C. Manly, Wake; Wm. Capehart, Chowan; Wm. H. Crenshaw, Wake; Jno. W. Blount, Beaufort; George Little, Jr., Warren; John Crow, Wake; Sam'l. F. Westray, Nash; C. F. Dowd, Wake.

RALEIGH MARKET.—Ben. Kirkham will have at his stand, (near the old Market-place,) to-morrow morning and afternoon, a choice supply of No. 1 meats,—Beef, Mutton, &c. Give him a call, and you will get your money's worth.

He has, for sale, also, a large, fine working Steer, on reasonable terms.

We have received the October number of the Southern Planter and Farmer. We have frequently spoken of the Magazine as one of the best agricultural periodicals published in the South, and the number above alluded to fully sustains its reputation for excellence and usefulness.

The Planter and Farmer is published at Richmond Virginia, and can be had for the moderate sum of $2 per annum.

A meeting of the Memorial Association will be held at the house of Mrs. H. L. Evans, on Friday the 15th inst. at 4 o'clock, P. M., for the purpose of filling the vacancy occasioned by the resignation of the President, Mrs. L. O. B. Branch.

The next session of the Council will be held at Graham, on the 2nd Tuesday in October, 1870.

DAILY COURIER.—This paper made its appearance for the first time, a few days ago in Petersburg Va., taking the place of the late Daily Express. Messrs. Smith, Camp & Co., are the publishers with the editorial columns under the charge of S. D. Davis, a gentleman of marked ability.

The Courier presents a very handsome appearance, and will, we hope, receive that encouragement and support from the public which its merit eminently deserves.

THE FOLLOWING we copy from the New York Evening Post. It pays a high but well merited compliment to the poetic genius of our townsman, Theo. H. Hill, Esq.:

Despite the facts that, in general, literature languishes as a trade, that the reviewers give but a chilling reception to poets, and that in comparison with fiction poetry has no sale at all, the quantity of verse in the market is as large as ever. Versifying, like virtue, we suppose is, to those who practice it, its own exceeding great reward; for young writers, regardless alike of the apathy and indifference of the world, and the expenses of type setting, press work and book binding, are constantly pressing forward for the laurel; while others, forgetting or forgiving the cold welcome extended to them on former occasions, make every day new appeals for recognition among the bards.

Among the latest candidates for poetic honors, Mr. Theo. H. Hill modestly puts forth his little book of "Poems," without preface of explanation or apology; leaving them to be judged by their merits alone.—Mr. Hill's "singing robe," so to speak, is a very pretty garment, indeed, not sky spun woven out of iris wool, but fashioned by Messrs. Hurd & Houghton, of Broome street, of daintiest materials of green and gold—in other words, the little book is very tasteful in typography and externals, and the young poet appears in it to great advantage. The poems are forty-seven in number and unequal in merit, but they are marked throughout by delicate sensibility and a rare and winning conscientiousness. Mr. Hill has evidently a just idea of what is due to his art, and has not failed to bestow patient care upon his metrical exercises.—There is true feeling in "Willie," a poem on the death of his child, but the best of all his pieces is the one with which the book opens, "Narcissus." It is the old myth told in nimble rhymes, of which the following may be taken as a pleasing specimen:

"Hapless child of Air and Tellus!
Thou that maidest Juno jealous!
Seek no further to discover
Footprints of thy faithless lover!
In the blue, inverted skies,
Star-like splendors greet his eyes:
Echo's eye no more may please—
In himself, himself he sees;
When the beauteous phantom first
On his ravished vision burst,
He, mayhap, was not aware
His own face was mirrored there;
In his crystal depths, alas!
He but saw, as in a glass
Lips disparted, cheeks aglow,
Flushed for all the world as though
Roses were about to blow,
Which had budded in the snow.
* * * * * *
From the mockery thou viewest—
From the fantasy thou woosest—
Soft responsive smiles ascending,
With thine own too brightly blending,
Weave a web of subtler tissue
Than Ara hne's loom may issue;
Spell whence there is no awaking;
Chain there is no hope of breaking;
Strong as those that bind the gory
Martyr of the mythic story
To the reeling, bleak Caucasian
Crag of an immortal passion!"

N. Y. Evening Post.

The Wilmington Star gives the following description of a gay scene which took place at a recent meeting of the Board of Aldermen of that city:

"A scene occurred at the City Hall on Monday night, during the meeting of the Board of Aldermen, which was not calculated to impress spectators very favorably as to the dignity and decorum preserved by our "City Fathers" in their august deliberations. Aldermen French, Arnold and one or two others were each trying to get a vote on their own proposition at one and the same time, and frantic appeals were made to the chair for "order! order!" The two former became very much excited, and finally 'Gee Z-e" informed the chair that such proceedings were disgraceful, and that if order was not restored he should leave the Hall: To which Alderman Arnold replied, "the gentleman can leave whenever he gets ready," with other expressions of similar import. Amid a storm of confusion and appeals to the Chair, which seemed to be unheeded by that functionary. Mr. French withdrew, when the Board, shortly after, adjourned in the utmost disorder, and without taking action on the subject which engendered the ill feeling which was in regard to the jurisdiction of the Mayor over the City Hall building."

THE CONTEMPT CASE AGAIN—JUDGE CANTWELL VS. MAYOR NEFF.—At the appointed hour yesterday the case of the Mayor, Mr. Jos. H. Neff, under a rule for contempt was resumed before Judge Cantwell. In behalf of the respondent an answer was filled. In filling this answer the counsel for the respondent, Mr. London, stated that he deemed it unnecessary to make any remarks further than those offered by himself and associate counsel yesterday on a motion for a discharge of the rule. He, Mr. London, was clear to admit his hostility to the Court, and asked if it would be a contempt of Court for the citizens to call a meeting and certify by resolution or petition to the General Assembly that the Court was unnecessary and ought to be abolished? His Honor decided that this question was not before the Court.

(Here followed a long answer, which we are unable to give.)

The Judge at the completion of the reading of the answer, still continued to adhere to his belief that a contempt had been committed. He therefore ordered that the defendant pay a fine of two hundred and fifty ($250) dollars and be in the custody of the Sheriff until the fine and cost are paid.—Wilmington Journal.

On Thursday night last, about nine o'clock a light was discovered shining in the narrow lane between the old S. E. Moore place and the Store of R. A. Sizer—and upon examination, a number of boxes over which kerosene oil had been poured was found in flames. The boxes were speedily knocked in the Street and no damage resulted.

When it is rembered at what an early hour this occurred, before the Stores had been closed and numbers of persons were passing on the Street, it will be seen how daring was the attempt.—Tarboro' Southerner.

At a recent meeting of the Executive Committee of the Edgecombe Agricultural Society, it was resolved to offer premiums for the best printing, book, job or newspaper.

LITTLEFIELD.—The Raleigh SENTINEL of the 28th ult., mentions a rumor that Gen. M. S. Littlefield has been appointed Financial Agent of the State of North Carolina for the city of New York. If the rumor be true, God help the old North State.—Tallahassee Meridian.

In Paris, of 2,000,000 inhabitants, the capital counts only 25,000 really wealthy persons, 160,000 who scarcely enjoy an easy competence; then a floating population of 100 000 foreigners and provincials, ranking in all 300,000 who spend freely. But, by the side of this wealth and comfort, is a formidable army of laborers, mechanics, and clerks, three-fourths of whom would lack the necessaries of life, if work were to fail them only a single month.

It is now stated that there is no truth in the report that the Messrs. Rothschild have sent an agent to offer this Government a loan at four per cent., or on any other terms. The last publicly known opinions of the Messrs. Rothschild were that, if this Government should propose a consolidated loan to Europe at four per cent, bonds would be sent back in large amounts.

MR. JEFFERSON DAVIS.—Mr. Davis, who arrived on Sunday afternoon in the steam ship Baltimore, from Southampton, still remains at Barnum's City Hotel. His brother came on from Mississippi about a week ago and met him on arriving at the hotel. Yesterday both gentlemen were on the street transacting business, and after dining spent the afternoon and evening privately with friends.—Balt. Sun of Tuesday.

He rejoiced that the election settled the fact that Virginia was hereafter to be ruled on principles of right and justice, civil and political equality.

What she now needs is plenty of honest industrious and intelligent laborers, no matter from what source they come; he appealed to the young men of Virginia not forsake the State, and not to forsake the plow and fly to the North, where vice and demoralization await them.

THE UTLEY
COTTON PRESS.

A NEW combination of power, whereby all friction is overcome. The simplicity, economy and durability of this PRESS astonishes all who see it, and the more so that a power so simple should so long have been unappropriated. With this Press, two men can do all the packing or pressing of a 500 pound bale inside of eight minutes; and it can be readily taken down and transported, as it is simple and light. We can supply these Presses cheaper than any yet offered to the Planter. Will send circulars to any desiring, and we would advise all persons wanting presses to withhold buying until they examine this.

THE PRESSES are now being manufactured at the SASH AND BLIND FACTORY OF THOS H. BRIGGS. All are assured that as between this and any other there is no argument as to its merits over all others. With the irons, any ordinary workman can put them up. The patentee is here for a few days, and will take pleasure in explaining its merits.

It has an IMPORTANT NEW FEATURE that has been copy-righted. According to this plan the rates are MUCH LOWER than in any other Company in the world.

Its ratio of Mortality is low. Its rates are very low. Its expenses are very low. Its dividends are large.

It insured more lives in the City of New York in 1868, than any other Company, except one. It insured more Policies in the United States than any other save one. It insured more lives in Canada than any other Company, British or American.

See what the HIGHEST INSURANCE AUTHORITY in this country says. In the June number of the Insurance Times, of New York, the following opinion was expressed:

"If there is any great benefit in mutual association, any great advantage to be derived from scientific organization and a chartered source, tending to mitigate the sufferings, lessen the privations, and add to the peace, security, and happiness of humanity, we are prepared to show that these blessings flow, in all their fullness and purity, from this excellent, powerful, and flourishing Company, the ÆTNA LIFE, of Hartford."

"No institution has brought more prompt full, and grateful relief to the hearths of the bereaved and desolate, and none has been more uniformly distinguished for the enterprise, wisdom, and equitable liberality with which it has fulfilled the purposes of its formation."

"Its success has been almost unbounded and beyond all precedent. Eight years ago, in 1861, it issued only 594 policies, received an income of seventy-eight thousand dollars, and possessed net assets summing up to something over two hundred and eighty-one thousand dollars; but last year, 1868, it granted 13 537 new policies, more than any other Company except the Mutual Life; received an income exceeding six million dollars, and had amassed solid, securely and profitably invested nett assets amounting to over Ten Million Three Hundred and Fifty Thousand Dollars. And this wonderful ratio of growth has been sustained in 1869."

PARKER & WATSON'S NATIONAL PRIMER.
PARKER & WATSON'S NATIONAL SPELLERS.
PARKER & WATSON'S NATIONAL READERS.
DAVIES' ARITHMETICS.
MONTEITH & MCNALLY'S GEOGRAPHIES.
MONTEITH'S YOUTH'S HISTORY OF THE U. S.
BIRD'S SYSTEM OF PENMANSHIP.

THE NEW DESCRIPTIVE GEOGRAPHY OF NORTH CAROLINA will be ready about the middle of October next. The maps, &c., are now being engraved as rapidly as possible. This work will be furnished with Monteith & McNally's Series, without extra charge.

PROF. JEROME ALLEN'S COMPLETE SYSTEM OF MAP DRAWING will also be furnished to the Public schools with Monteith & McNally's Series, without extra charge.

The books will be supplied at exceedingly low rates to the Public Schools in the state.

Similar terms will be made accessible to private schools adopting the above named books uniformly.

Pupils attending the Public Schools will, in accordance with the State contract, be furnished with new copies of Monteith & McNally's Geographies and Davies' Arithmetics in exchange for old copies of Cornell's Geographies and Quackenbos' Arithmetics, which they may possess.

Books will be supplied, carefully packed and shipped, by ALFRED WILLIAMS,
Depositary, Raleigh, N. C.

Teachers and Educators generally are respectfully invited to correspond with
C. W. LAMBETH,
Agent for the Publishers
and Sup't of Introduction.

From Dr. WM. B. HARRELL, Prin. High School, Snow Hill, N. C.:
SNOW HILL, N. C.
"I am much pleased with both the Spellers and all the Readers; and as to the series of Geographies by Monteith & McNally, I have long used no other when these could be obtained.

From Rev. ALBERT SMEDES, D. D, Rector of St. Mary's School, Raleigh, N. C.
RALEIGH, N. C.
I have examined the Geographies—Monteith's [No. 4] and McNally's [No. 5] and find excellencies in both, which eminently entitle them to a wide circulation. It is my purpose to introduce Monteith's [No. 4] into my school. I give it the preference for the information which it gives on the subject of Physical Geography. The maps and questions in both works seem to me to be admirable. ALBERT SMEDES.

From J. W. GULICK, A. M., Prin. Male Academy, Goldsboro', N. C.:
GOLDSBORO', N. C.
I find your books are in use in many Schools in this section. The teachers speak in the highest terms of your Readers and Geographies, and of Peck's Ganot in particular. J. W. GULICK.

From Col. WM. BINGHAM, Prin. Bingham School, N. C.
The introduction of so much valuable matter on the subjects of Physical Geography and Geology and in a form so simple and intelligible, makes it (Monteith's Intermediate Geography) in my judgment, a charming school book.
"We shall introduce Davies' Boardon, perhaps others of your books."

From Dr. CLOSE, Prin. Durham Academy, N. C.:
DURHAM, N. C.
I design introducing the present session Mc-Nally's Geography and Davies' University Arithmetic; also Boyd's Elements of English Composition. M. CLOSE,

From M. L. LITTLE, Esq., Prin. Pleasant Hill Seminary, Newton, N. C.
NEWTON N. C.
Will introduce the University Arithmetic next term. Have examined it with much satisfaction. An admirable work. M. L. LITTLE,

From Rev. S. IVEY, Prin Auburn Academy N. C.:
AUBURN, N. C.
Monteith's Geographies are excellent works, and I shall introduce them into my school.
STINCEON IVEY.

Prof. WM. A. GUERRANT, writing from Hillsboro' Military Academy, says:
The superior and durable style of binding of your works is a very great recommendation—one with which I have long been favorably impressed.

From J. E. DUGGER, Esq., Prin. Male Academy, Warrenton, N. C.
WARRENTON N. C.
"Davies' Mathematics" was adopted by me in 1856, and, up to this time, I have examined no works superior to them as a whole.
I have examined, with a view of introduction, "McNally's Geography" [No. 5] and "Peck's Ganot's Natural Philosophy." I consider them most excellent works, and shall put them in my boys' hands, at the earliest period. The Philosophy is truly an enticing work and must meet with universal commendation. J. E. DUGGER.

From W. C. KERR, State Geologist of N. C.
I regard Monteith's Physical and Intermediate Geography as one of the best books of its kind. It has several points of superiority over most primary Geographies; not the least of which, especially in the eyes of the juveniles, will be found in the attractive and very graphic illustrations. Another is the truly wonderful amount of substantial and really scientific information conveyed by these wood cuts, and the concise and lucid descriptions appended. But the chief excellence consists in this, that Geography is here treated from the only true and rational standpoint, viz: of Geology and Physical Geography; so that the learner arrives, by a natural and easy process, at the true conception of the earth as an organized whole; the designed result of successive changes and modifications, under the control of physical laws, constituting a true growth from a chaotic germ through manifold stages of progress, all pointing forward to its destined end as the home of living beings, and finally of man.

From Rev. G. D. BERNHEIM, Principal of Mount Amoena Female Seminary, Mount Pleasant, N. C.
MT. PLEASANT, N. C.
I have introduced your National Series of Readers with great satisfaction to myself and to our teachers. We find them to be excellent, just suited to our purpose.
With Davies' Mathematical Series we have been long familiar, and can find no good reason for changing them.
In the Primary Department we have Monteith's Geographies, and in the advanced classes we have introduced Peck's Ganot, with much acceptance. G. D. BERNHEIM.

From Prof. JOS. H. FEW, President Stantonsburg Scientific High School, N. C.
WILSON, N. C.
I have carefully examined the claims of the different Series of School Books most prominent before the public at this time. I have tested the merits of many of them in the school and lecture room, and feel no hesitancy in pronouncing the "National Series of Readers and Spellers" the best with which I am acquainted. I shall henceforth use no others in my school, and I shall furthermore use my influence to secure their adoption into other Seminaries in this section.
I use Davies' Mathematical Series in my school. I consider his works incomparably superior in many particulars, even to Stoddard's Course, which is saying a great deal. In fact, I consider it the highest encomium in my power to bestow.
I use Monteith's Series in my school. They afford a gradual but thorough and systematic progression, from the simplest rudiments of science, up to a development sufficiently exhaustive for all ordinary educational purposes. Their very superior merit has led me to discard ——— which stands next best on the list.
McNally's, the fifth book of the course, is decidedly the chief discovery of Geographies. No competent instructor can examine it for an hour without being struck with its extraordinary merit. J. H. FOY

From the Statesville, N. C. American, February 20th, 1866.
We would call the attention of Teachers in Western North Carolina to the valuable school publications of this firm, which are equal to any in the Union.
Messrs Barnes & Co., of New York, are now issuing large editions of these Standard School Books for the Southern States. The series consists of the National Primer, or Word Builder, National Elementary Speller, The National First and 2d, 4th and 5th Readers. This firm will allow no competition in the price of books published by them, which are among the best in the States.

From the Raleigh Daily Progress, Feb 20, 1866.
NATIONAL SECOND READER.—We have never examined a volume of its class which we could commend more cordially to parents and teachers.

From the N. C. Presbyterian, March 7, 1866.
NATIONAL FIRST READER.—We recommend it to all who desire a valuable book of instruction for beginners.

From the Wilmington, N. C. Daily Herald, 1866.
The National Series has attained probably a higher reputation than any other complete series of School Books now in existence.
